The Power of Words

The greatest power in the world is the power of ideas.

And when ideas take permanent form men call them words and sentences. In the combining and manipulating of these permanent ideas lies the driving force of the universe.

To offer our clients service in exerting power of this kind we have inaugurated a copy department.

Guy E. Dingle

has become affiliated with our organization in the capacity of copy writer and critic. Through him we are prepared to offer copy service of every nature to all who may require it.
